THE TREATY OF MUTUAL RECOGNITION BETWEEN THE KINGDOM OF RUTHENIA AND THE KINGDOM OF GASTON

To all parties in signature, in face of the international conventions drafted in the name of peace and co-operation between the states, it is the obligation of nations in signature of TREATY OF MUTUAL RECOGNITION to follow these regulations and procedures and for the leaders of the state to pursuit peace and understanding of both nations beyond their regular station.

Article I

It shall be established that in this document, the sovereignty and independence of the KINGDOM OF GASTON and the KINGDOM OF RUTHENIA shall not be infringed or abridged in the name of furthering either state's station.

Article II

Through the signing of the TREATY OF MUTUAL RECOGNITION, the KINGDOM OF GASTON and the KINGDOM OF RUTHENIA shall formally recognize the sovereignty and independence of both states until dissolution of one (or all) of the states.

Article III

It is through this mutual recognition, in which both states of KINGDOM OF GASTON and KINGDOM OF RUTHENIA establish formal diplomatic and economic relations in respect to aforementioned conventions and declarations of the UNITED NATIONS.

Article IV

Through this recognition of diplomatic relations, it shall be established that both states remain separate and equal as independent states with regard to national legislature and foreign affairs, that that this document establishes relations between only nations that sign the treaty.

Article V

Herein this document it shall be established that the relationship acknowledged by both states is unbinding until dissolution of a state or passage of opposing legislature is passed within a national house of representatives, and that the establishment of these ties shall be based on the recognition of human rights.

Article VI

Both states acknowledge these relationships to be built on co-operation and perpetual peace between each state, and that the independent citizens of both nations respect and recognize the sovereignty, laws, and conventions of the other.

Article VII

This treaty shall formally come into effect one week following the signing and ratification of the document by either nation's independent national legislature, or alternate representative bodies, and the heads of state.

I, Oscar the First, by the Grace of God, King of the Ruthenians; Grand Duke of Escandia, Grand Duke of Grevenia and Caledonia, Prince de Thomaz-Rocha, Count of Götzö, Duke of Persenburg-Götzödorf, Lord of Alto da Solidão, Hereditary Prince of Água Branca and Other Domains, Prince of the Land of St. Stephen and Duke of the Land of St. Peter and St. Paul, Marquis of Arpuro and Duke of Grand Savage, Grand Duke of Imvrassia, Baron von Goetzén of Abeldane and Grand-Master of Royal Order of St. Stephen and of the Orders of St. Peter and St. Paul, accept the conditions of this treaty and pledge to uphold the conditions herein.
